Signature Cocktails

There's a perfect drink for every occasion, time and place.

Sometimes we just want to be surprised or have a drink because we're sad, happy, celebrating or simply go out with friends or family.

Let us take you and your senses on a journey to show how true it is.

If we didn't read your mind let us know how you feel and we give the mind-reading one more chance.

ou wake up in the morning, a bit sleepy, the night's dream still makes your mind unclear but you're determinate to spend the day usefully, because this day is only yours. It's your life, it's now or never, you ain't gonna live forever. So you step out of the everyday life and you take the day for yourself. You gather some energy for your exciting adventure, you Treat Yourself with Horseradish Polugar, Lemon juice, Bitters, Cucumber and Ginger Beer. (Allergens: Gluten)

Treat Yourself

2250 Ft

our journey starts in a mystic forest where a special guide is going to lead you. The Forest Nymph is going to make you happy if you're in a rather melancholic mood, just like a relaxing walk early morning in a nice forest. Hoarfrost is glimmering on trees and on the ground, and sunshine just broke through the crown of the trees. This is the feeling we wanted to give you with Russian Standard Vodka, Amaretto, Vanilla, Cardamom bitter, Lemon and a hint of smoke thanks to the Lapsang Souchong tea. (Allergens: Nuts, Gluten)

The Forest Nymph

2250 Ft

etting out of the wood you arrive on a nice meadow. The rising sun makes the sumptuous flowers look like Caribbean Gold in the green grass. You instantly feel happy and glow from energy as you hear the swallows singing. Plantation Original Dark Rum, Passion fruit purée, Vanilla, Lemon, Limoncello, Home-made tonkabean bitter accompanies this view.

Caribbean Gold

2550 Ft

here's only one, confident tree rising above the meadow, proudly giving shadow to a fatigue adventurer who's speaking out loud telling his story. Suddenly, Gravity plays a small trick on him and a cheeky fruit falls on his head. Both of you start to laugh from the heart at the same time. This accident gives him an inspiration for a cocktail made from Boulard Calvados, Chartreuse Yellow, Lemon, Home-made lemongrass syrup and Orange bitter.

Gravity

2850 Ft

Our prices are inclusive of VAT. We add 13.5% service charge to the final bill.

Walking away from the apple tree in the Midday Heat with the extraordinary thoughts of the traveller in your head, you are thinking about how different and interesting people are, like Broker's Gin, Chambord, Lemon, Vanilla, Chocolate bitter and Thyme in a drink.

Midday Heat

2250 Ft

You get to a rippling stream. You see the reflection of the blue sky glimmering on the surface of the narrow river, and tiny fish swimming playfully between the pebbles. You spend a moment there admiring the shining freshness of this scene, like the shiny Italicus caviars in our Aqva Luce Gin and Noilly Prat Vermouth Italicus Martini.

Italicus Martini

2850 Ft

Out of the blue you just jump over the stream. Abruptly your mind knows No Borders anymore, you feel like a child sitting on his grandmom's carpet imagining he's flying over the seven seas or a pirate sailing the wildest oceans and conquering the world. That's what you get if you order Remy Martin VSOP Cognac with Lemon, Sugar and our special Hibiscus-vanilla espuma.

No Borders

3150 Ft

You reach a fishing village, where fishermen are whistling and singing the song of the sea, and the scent and cracking sound of oysters being opened fill the air. One of the fishermen gives you an oyster and a piece of lemon to squeeze on. This gentle gesture and his warm smile touches your heart and you feel peaceful. This tradition that characterizes the whole harbour is something special, like our Caviar&Bull Martini made with Oyster infused Russian Standard Vodka, Noilly Prat Vermouth and Lemon peel. (Allergens: Oyster)

Caviar&Bull Martini

2250 Ft

Sometimes you feel a bit tired and need some time to relax and gain some power. It's just as true to our life as to our days. A 5 o'clock Tea lets you sit down for a couple of minutes and gives energy for the rest of the day. Don't let anyone judge you if you add some unusual ingredients to it. We gave a twist to our regular Sencha tea with Home-made lemongrass syrup, Lemon, Egg white, Angostura bitter and accidentally some Pisco Capel Reservado. (Allergens: Egg)

5 o'clock Tea

2850 Ft

After the small break, you take a cosy boat heading to a small island, where your friends are already waiting for you. On your way you are staring at the endless sea, no clouds above and you feel empty. But this is a good emptiness. Your Free Spirit makes you feel carefree and reckless. Ciroc Vodka, Home-made honey-black tea infusion, Lemon, Cardamom bitter and Rosemary make you carefree, too. It's gluten free and sweetened only by honey so you have nothing to worry about.

Free Spirit

2650 Ft

Our prices are inclusive of VAT. We add 13.5% service charge to the final bill.

There are some moments in life that you wish to be Never Ending. Like this barbecue with your friends on the island with a bottle of wine. Smoke and laughter fill the air and time just flies away. One of your friends, Pascal sais something interesting that doesn't leave your mind. 'Life is not what we live; it is what we imagine living.' It's just as catchy as our creation with Del Maguey Vida Mezcal, Quince jam, Lemon, Sugar, Chardonnay and Egg white.
(Allergens: Egg)

Never Ending

2850 Ft

As you are staring into the dancing flames of the campfire you recall a memory. You feel like sitting in front of the fireplace in your fluffiest pair of socks, A Little Night Music playing in the background, the smell of your Christmas tree filling the air. You raise your glass to your mouth, but instead of mulled wine, there is Jameson Irish Whiskey, Home-made honey-black tea infusion, Lemon, Mozart Dark Chocolate Liqueur and Angostura bitter inside.
(Allergens: Gluten, Nuts)

A Little Night Music

2250 Ft

After dinner, you're lying in a comfy hammock near the campfire, admiring the breathtaking Surreal Sunset. Yellow, gold and red colours are mixed with the blue sea and they are like a thought-provoking Dalí painting made with Plantation Grande Reserve Rum, Pampero Aniversario Rum, Del Maguey Vida Mezcal, Home-made lemongrass syrup, Lemon, Home-made sage bitter.

Surreal Sunset

2450 Ft

Your friends suggest to go to the city to celebrate this amazing day and the beauty of life. You find there a lovely Italian bar. Sure thing, a bottle of Prosecco is already on the table. But you're not the one to just take a glass of it. As your life, it also needs some twist. The Italicus Spritz made with Italicus, Prosecco, Thyme and Olives and the Edinburgh Spritz made with Edinburgh Rhubarb-Ginger Liqueur, Prosecco and Kumquats are bubbling up your mood. After the first round when the waiter comes for the next order, you just say 'Not another champagne cocktail, please!' He surprises you with their speciality composed of Broker's Gin, Blood orange purée, Vanilla, Lemon, Cardamom pods and Prosecco. The night feels infinite and you just go with the flow.

According to the theory of Williams James and Carl Lange, we aren't smiling because we are happy but we become happy because we realise that we are smiling. Nevertheless, this day was well spent, through emotions and memories, a journey to yourself. A French friend told me 'C'est Inachevé!', which means it's incomplete. Incomplete, because he was missing the end of the story. There is one missing ingredient from this cocktail made with Italicus, Bombay Sapphire Gin, Unicum Riserva Liqueur, Aperol Liqueur, Lemon, Del Maguey Vida Mezcal and Black olive ash. What's the last ingredient to this cocktail and the story? Get one and you'll find out.
